(a) whether Government have done any study on the increasing popularity of naxal-movement in tribal areas, if so, the details thereof, if not, the reasons therefor;

(b) the number of tribal who have been arrested or killed on nationals counts including naxal-violence in different parts of the country with the details thereof, State-wise; and

(c) the steps taken by Government to when win away tribal from these violent movements and activities?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) The Ministry of Tribal Affairs runs a scheme on "Supporting-projects of all India or Inter-State nature" under which the Ministry sponsors to Universities, NGOs etc. the Research studies on various aspects related to tribals and their development. During the year 2001-02, the Ministry sponsored a research study to Berhampur University, Orissa on 'Dynamics of Tribal Exploitations and Growth of Naxalite movement in Andhra Pradesh-Orissa-Chhattisgarh Border Region.

(b) No details for the number of tribals arrested or killed are maintained. However, the State-wise casualties of civilians in naxal violence during the current year (upto 30.11.2005) are as under:

Andhra Pradesh	174
Jharkhand	90
Chhattisgarh	111
Bihar	56
Maharashtra	29
Orissa	13
Uttar Pradesh	1
Madhya Pradesh	2
West Bengal	4
Karnataka	2

(c) Given its socio-economic dimension the Government has pursued a strategy to meet this challenge also on development front besides police action. The Ministry of Tribal Affairs is implementing a number of programmes/schemes for overall welfare and development of the tribal people. Some of these schemes are meant for income generation and upgrading the literacy level among the tribals which in turn wean away the tribals from the disruptive activities. The Minisitry of Home Affairs has also issued guidelines in January, 2005 for making 40% recruitment in the Central Police Forces from the militancy/naxalism affected and border areas.
